Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

On May 1, 2025, Prudential Financial, Inc. (the “Company”) hosted a conference call to discuss the Company’s results for the first quarter of 2025. During the question & answer portion of the call, in response to a question about the Company’s sensitivity to interest rate movements, Yanela Frias, the Company’s Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, misspoke stating that “From an interest rate perspective, if we assume a 50 basis point one time interest rate decline, we expect the AOI impact to be about a 20% decline in EPS on an annual basis.” Ms. Frias intended to say 20 cents and not 20%.

The full transcript of the conference call, including the correction referred to above, will be posted on the Company’s Investor Relations website.

Forward-Looking Statements

Certain of the statements included in this report, including those regarding the estimated impact to the Company of a decline in interest rates, constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Words such as “expects”, “believes”, “anticipates”, “includes”, “plans”, “assumes”, “estimates”, “projects”, “intends”, “should”, “will”, “shall”, or variations of such words are generally part of forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements are made based on management’s current expectations and beliefs concerning future developments and their potential effects upon Prudential Financial, Inc. and its subsidiaries. Prudential Financial, Inc.’s actual results may differ, possibly materially, from expectations or estimates reflected in such forward-looking statements. Certain important factors that could cause actual results to differ, possibly materially, from expectations or estimates reflected in such forward-looking statements can be found in the “Risk Factors” and “Forward-Looking Statements” sections included in Prudential Financial, Inc.’s Annual Reports on Form 10-K and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q. Prudential Financial, Inc. does not undertake to update any particular forward-looking statement included in this presentation.
