PART III — NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-CEN, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Pruco Life Insurance Company (the "Company") is unable to file, without unreasonable effort and expense, its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2021 (the "Form 10-Q"). The Company requires additional time to finalize its financial statements for the quarter ended September 30, 2021, and our assessment of our internal controls over financial reporting, as a result of the Company recapturing the risks related to its variable annuity base contracts, along with the living benefit guarantees, that had been previously reinsured to Prudential Annuities Life Assurance Corporation effective July 1, 2021, as disclosed in its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2021 and filed on August 12, 2021. The Company currently expects to file the Form 10-Q before the end of the five calendar day extension period.

PART IV — OTHER INFORMATION

(1) Name and telephone number of person to contact in regard to this notification

Susan M. Mann

(Telephone Number)

- (2) Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed? If answer is no, identify report(s). Yes ☒ No ☐
- (3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof? Yes ☒ No ☐

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

The financial statements included in the Company's Form 10-Q filing are expected to include a significant loss as a result of the recapture transaction, which will be reflected in our unaudited interim consolidated statement of operations, representing a significant change from the corresponding period in the last fiscal year. We are unable to estimate this loss as the preparation of our financial statements is still in progress.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Certain of the statements included in this filing constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Words such as "expects," "believes," "anticipates," "includes," "plans," "assumes," "estimates," "projects," "intends," "should," "will," "shall" or variations of such words are generally part of forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements regarding our beliefs and expectations relating to the filing of the Form 10-Q and the loss that is expected to be reflected in the unaudited interim financial statements contained therein. Forward-looking statements are made based on management's current expectations and beliefs concerning future developments and their potential effects upon Pruco Life Insurance Company and its subsidiary. There can be no assurance that future developments affecting Pruco Life Insurance Company and its subsidiary will be those anticipated by management. Pruco Life Insurance Company does not intend, and is under no obligation, to update any particular forward-looking statement included in this document. See "Risk Factors" included in the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2020 for discussion of certain risks relating to our business and investment in our securities.
