Prospectus Supplement Dated August 5, 2024

If the maturity date, redemption date or an interest payment date for any note is not a business day (as that term is defined in the prospectus), principal, premium, if any, and interest for that note is paid on the next business day, and no interest will accrue from, and after, the maturity date, redemption date or interest payment date (following unadjusted business day convention).

* The survivor's option feature of your note is subject to important limitations, restrictions and procedural requirements further described on page S-32 of your prospectus supplement.

The Bank of New York will act as trustee for the Notes. Citibank, N.A., will act as paying agent, registrar and transfer agent for the Notes and will administer any survivor's options with respect thereto.

Notes will be sold to you at the selling price specified in this Pricing Supplement. The Purchasing Agent shall purchase notes from us at the selling price less the applicable gross concession specified in this Pricing Supplement. The Purchasing Agent may resell the notes it purchases to the agents and selected dealers at the selling price less a concession that, at the discretion of the Purchasing Agent, may be less than or equal to the gross concession received by the Purchasing Agent. Notes purchased by the agents and selected dealers on behalf of level-fee investment advisory accounts may be sold to such accounts at the selling price less the applicable concession, and such agents and selected dealers shall not retain, as compensation, any portion of such concession applicable to such selling agents and dealers. In that instance, the Purchasing Agent may retain the portion of the gross concession applicable to the Purchasing Agent.
